Me and Tessbell were chased down the woods by a giant intoxicated dinosaur...

This particular species, Leviathaurus, was found drinking out the back lake of Ren Tardy's Beer Garden.

Mr. Ryan, we need to find a harpoon launcher.

Wrong Tessbell, have you seen Jurassic Park?

We need to trap the fucker in a giant cage.

Better yet, we can build one in the ground with an army of metal spikes!!!

Ryan, wake up, wake up!! Ahh!! Ahh!! What?! What?!

I looked to my left and saw Tessbell still drinking next to me at Ren Tardy's Beer Garden...

You alright man? Hey! Check out this book!

It has a picture of a Leviathaurus in captivity!
